

Writing to Change the Hearts

Teen Writing Workshop
with Author Sara Bawany

Join us for a teen writing workshop to write towards an issue you care deeply about, while utilizing the emotional components of persuasive writing (pathos), alongside strong diction and literary devices to craft masterful poems. Students will walk away with a piece of their own about a cause they care most about.

for ages 13-18

Sara Bawany is an award-winning poet, two-time author, clinical social worker, and creative writing teacher based in Austin, TX. She holds a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing from Texas State University.

To sign up for her workshop, please register in advance online or at the circulation desk.
